World Peace Meditation

A FIRST MESSAGE OF WELCOME

The Crystal Skull Conclave A Message from the Conclave as we begin this journey together

Harry Nichols & Kathy Welter

World Peace Meditation 2024

We of the Crystal Skull Conclave (CSC) wish to welcome all today, and acknowledge the generous and inspired guidance of Joshua who originated the Peace Meditation with his partner, Katrina in 2009

2009 was an 11 gateway portal opening that provided access to the creativity of the Pink Ray, it still required negotiation and agreement at many levels of the Great Chambers of Light. Once agreement was made, the Pink Ray was incorporated into the five new rays. We will speak more of these as we continue the Peace Meditations.

We wish to advise you around the upcoming portal gateway opening, in 2027. It represents another 11 gateway opening and is closing out this period of intensity and transition.

It will be a year, of self-mastery with the evolution of conscious currently underway. Over the next three years, the CSC will continue to meet and create opportunities to work with the skulls in both downloaded and amplifying energies along with this vital Peace Meditation.

We speak to this briefly for illumination... the small crystal microchips in your computers and hand held devices provide reception and transmission along with a host of other functions that are growing every day.

When you hold a quartz Crystal or a Crystal Skull, the magnification and amplification is many more times the power of the connectivity of your computer chips in your devices. This will give you an illustration around how powerful these crystal are, and how highly evolved the Planet Earth truly is as a home for these crystals and their collective wisdom.

The earth herself utilizes the many grids that run through the chambers of the earth herself. Crystals that have come to the surface have chosen to do so, in response to the collective evolution of the wisdom currently underway, and alignment with the agreements to support and enhance these collective shifts.

We are at the next gateway now. We had entered it in 2009 – at that time, many on the planet received guidance – of course none could envision what would transpire before the next 11 gateway opening. The seemingly “incredulous” events are what help consciousness Awaken. The longer the delay in “awakening” the more intense the events become.

Many of the channels and transmission holders will be receiving information and wisely attempting to relay it, now. They do so, through their own template of understanding, values judgements, beliefs, and the like.

So you may encounter some suggestions and projections that are not focused in higher frequency and positive guidance. This is because the information received is coming through the individual who may still be working through the many lifetimes of challenging experience.

You may all know, in fact, you are all put on notice, there is none among you walking this planet today, or coming into human form with new lifetimes – that is unconscious. This is an AWAKE TIME. Being in this time line by choice, you are AWAKE, even if at times you opt to pretend you are not, or attempt to drown your life experiences through altering states with substances found here on the earth. It matters not, you are still AWAKE.

Awaking is a collective frequency. There is none of you less qualified than another. There may be emotions, fears, worries, challenges, disbelief...that may block, and that is ok too. You are still here on purpose and with purpose. This is one of the times foretold by the ancients, and one often spoken of, as stretching the soul's work.

This time, is truly walking between the worlds. Rest assured you are all wise masters. Those that answered the call of the Crystal Skulls, and have either, been given, or offered, or purchased a skull have done so with this inner “magnetic field” drawing you towards this time and this place and to the activations available through the Crystal Skulls

If you are a guardian, if you are gifted a skull, you are receiving it because you are capable of opening now to deeper alignments with your own intuition and your own deeper capabilities. Awakening to who you truly are.

The CSC will sit every 1st of the month to provide all with the MP3 and the transcription, and then on the 13, as a group, so that the world can pick up the transmissions from the CSC and do the peace meditations. We offer you may feel free to do the Peace Meditation as often as you feel called to do them. This confirms each month will provide you with a different meditation for the 13. You are most welcome to do the meditation on your own, and attend the live stream, or meditate at different times and intend it forward to the correct hour. (1pm, on the 13th of each month)

The MP3's and Transcripts will be provided each month so you can follow along with the transmitted meditation for that time and place. Prepare to evolve

Each meditation will be date and time /stamped at PST – so you can adjust to your own time zone. We have set the 1pm or 1300 hours for the time to sit for 20 minutes and do the meditation, in your own time zone.

The reason being, is it will give global coverage in each time zone as the meditation is utilized by each of you. If you are going to do the meditation more often, please do so at these times. 1 pm or 13 hundred hours in your time zoon. Like a vast wave of consciousness, never ending waves of peace will flow into the collective.

Many at this time are feeling frenzied, exhausted, nervous and depleted experiencing wave after wave of disbelief in the quality and caliber of what seems the human collective unconscious. These individuals are struggling with their own internal narration of just how bad it all is. As these “unconscious” or unaware thought patterns the collective consciousness can lead with intention for Peace and Harmony; which can and will easily begin to infiltrate and re-write these lower vibrational thought models.

If you cannot make the meditation on the 13 of each month you may intend forward to your meditation time. Rest assured this is not problematic, your intentions are everything. We repeat, your intentions are everything, they are as magnetic as any other frequency, when held clearly with purpose.

36 months from now (a 9 vibration) will bring this group into 2027, launched in the auspicious year of the Dragon with a new fierce determination to shift collectively.

We align with you, with integrity, heartfelt love and compassion. What each of you has been through over the past few years takes great stamina, and powerful skills as warriors of the Light.

Those that have had the opportunity to pass into the Light and did so, also have the opportunity to reincarnate at any time. It’s a continuum of conscious.

We advise you some the challenges ahead for humanity over these next 36 months will be stretching you, each of you, once again. We invite you to begin working with this frequency and utilize during times that ask for your highest intelligence, integrity and transparency. As you train now to become beacons of the Light know that you are assisted in every way.

There was a question at the beginning of this Return of the Peace Mediation. Why a peace meditation? At this time?

Continuing with the Peace Mediations as this operates on multiple levels.:

- 1: You become channels of Light and Peace as you meditate on peace yourselves.
- 2: You begin to work more closely with your own energy fields and strategies of belief
- 3: You begin to change in the internal thought mechanisms consciously challenging negative and deafest ideology. These thoughts- internal ones, are what we most encourage all of you to take great responsibly with now as manifesting thoughts are becoming more and more frequent. These are not mere coincidences, they never were, and the more you bring this to consciousness the quicker it will begin to shift your inner alignment
- 4: If we direct your thoughts towards peace for others, it will begin to influence yourselves internally. In other words peace on the outside will reflect as peace on the inside. You will find yourselves seeking peace, cooperation, harmony and simply avoiding the opposite.

5: Each of you will be connecting globally with skulls and other skull guardians, building this connection will elevate and expand peace through each of you, and through the collective and specifically in the areas where you do the Peace Meditation.

6: As you work with the frequencies of the new rays and the rays of light known to associate with the chakra systems you will be receive clearing and healing within yourselves.

8: We ask that all of you suspend belief while doing this Peace Meditation. We know it's as if there is a fantasy underway, where dragons do exist and disbelief about what a fantasy of Peace might be at this time. There have been many global peace initiatives in the past and they have manifested powerful results in the collective unconscious.

Never doubt the power of intention focused with many on one outcome and how quickly changes will flow from it.

We are open to hearing from all of you and we invite exchanges as these will help to bolster your experience. Dream times may become rich with light and images. We recommend you keep a dream journal, especially the day of the your mediation and following.

These meditations activate inner brain frequency, they promote the release of higher frequency chemicals, they release tension, fear, anxiety, emotional trauma... as you view your world and its many challenges, do keep in mind you do not have to participate in those external dramatic sequences. Especially ones you have zero influence or control over. They are not entertainment, they are PRE-PROGRAMMING YOUR THOUGHTS by taking over your emotions.

We are grateful for the opportunity to work with all of you, and as we have shared with Harry and Kathy, we are always ON. Whether we are in a cupboard of safety tucked away, or on a bookshelf, - we are always ON. We are always transmitting, receiving and we bring this into your energy field. Some of you that are more sensitive will pick up on the frequency and may perhaps begin to allow yourself to receive transmission similar to this one.

We want you to know, anything that is not relayed in a positive and uplifting and life affirming loving transmission, is not for you, Just send it back.

We will be assisting all of you in helping you program and work with your skulls to align to your greatest potential, and the potential of humanity that is currently directly before you.

We will get there..

We thank you for participating and send a beloved welcome to each of you and warm regards to all our collectives wherever they are around this beautiful earth.
